Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 29.—Democratic leaders from far and near gathered today for the celebration of the nomination of Governor H. H. Rogers, ranking first in the state of Arkansas.

South had not notified a national candidate of his selection since the war. Arkansas has never before. Dixie and state appeared today determined to signalize their new place in the nation with fitting ceremonies.
Mr. Rogers has proclaimed today a holiday. Hot Springs selected in her gayest bunting.
The ceremony moves in by carloads.

Smith Not Coming
Gov. Smith will not be here to see the running mate notified, but he designated his eldest daughter, Mrs. John B. Warner, to represent the family.

Mrs. Warner is expected tomorrow morning. With her will come Charles H. Raskob of the national committee, Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, chairman of the national advisory committee; Mrs.
C. C. Tamm, vice chairman of the national committee; Mrs.
C. D. Roosevelt, chairman of the advisory committee of a group of committee members of state leaders from the Middle West, who are concluding today in St. Louis their conference upon the national campaign.

Million For West
St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 29.—A million dollars to carry the middlewest was the Democratic program for the great agricultural belt as the campaign managers would up today their three-day conference with Smith-Robinson warriors from 10 states of the upper Mississippi valley battleground.

Mr. Raskob, Democratic national chairman, outlined the party program today as he prepared to depart with his chief lieutenants for Hot Springs, Ark., for the notification ceremonies Thursday evening of the presidential nominee.

$50,000 IN GEMS STOLEN IN EAST

100,000 Pearl Necklace
And Many Uncut Diamonds Are Taken

New York, Aug. 29.—New York police today were investigating the daring jewel robberies in which pearls and diamonds valued more than $50,000 were stolen.
The robbery of pawnshops here was made in an effort to locate a $100,000 pearl necklace stolen from Jerome Loucheim, wealthy philanthropist at Saratoga Springs; $100,000 worth of uncut diamonds from the automobile of a New York salesman in Philadelphia; and 17 strings of pearls valued more than $50,000 taken from the diamonds of Jacques Blenheim and his wife.

Mr. Loucheim reported that her necklace was stolen while she was at the Lido-Venice restaurant, at Manhattan, or on her way home. The necklace, she said, was composed of 17 strings of pearls.
The diamonds were taken from the automobile of Frank Hardin, husband of Mrs. J. R. Wood and sons, which it was parked in front of a jewelry store in Germantown area, Philadelphia.

The daring robbery of the Blenheim establishment, though perpetrated on August 17, has just been reported to the police.

Repair Bridges In Flooded Districts

Elizaville, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Bridges being repaired, telephone and telegraph lines are being restrung, and homes are being reclaimed in Elizaville and Sullivan counties in the Hudson valley as the waters of the Hudson creek continue to recede.
At Elizaville, Grahamsville and Hudson were still suffering from flood waters, following the flood which swept 16 miles of Roundout creek after a cloudburst late Sunday afternoon.

THREE TRUNK LINES PROTEST LISBON REPORT

Take Exception to Recent Findings of Examiner
On Proposed Line

Washington, Aug. 29.—Protests against the Interstate Commerce Commission's favorable report of a commission examiner in regard to the proposed Youngstown-Ohio River railroad were on file today from three trunk line roads—the P. & L.
E., Pennsylvania and B. & O.
In taking exception to the examiner's favorable report on the application of the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western Railroad to construct extensions, and the application of the Montour railroad to acquire control of the Lisbon, the trunk lines make three main points:

1. That the proposed construction and operation of the Lisbon road under control of the Pittsburgh Coal company, which controls the Montour, would give the coal company a monopoly in the Youngstown market.
2. That the new road would enable the Pittsburgh Coal company to suppress competition between shippers of coal from the Pittsburgh and Connellsville districts to Youngstown.
3. That control by the coal company of the terminal facilities on the Ohio river would in effect limit the operation of the Lisbon road to the private purposes of the coal company.

Oral arguments on the exceptions are requested, and the Interstate Commerce commission probably will set a date for such arguments. The examiner who made the favorable report is C. V. Burnside, assistant director, Bureau of finance of the commission.

Evidence Challenged
The roads charged also that "the recommendations of the assistant director are contrary to law," that

Burglars forced their way into the Sunkist fruit market, Broadway, some time Tuesday night, it was reported to Police Chief T. W.
Thompson today.

A 25-pound sack of sugar was the only loot taken by the burglars, according to Joseph Corso, manager of the store.
Entrance was made by forcing the screen door in the rear of the market with a strip of tin which was found by police.

TURNER WILL PROBE CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Columbus, Aug. 29.—Attorney-General Edward C. Turner today launched an investigation of campaign expense accounts recently filed by political candidates with Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.
The purpose of this probe, it was stated, is to determine, if possible, whether any of the candidates for state offices, or their supporters, violated the Buckeye state's corrupt practices act during the pre-primary campaign which ended August 14.

Complying with a request from Turner, the secretary of state's office today turned over to the attorney-general the numerous expense accounts.

It was understood that the attorney-general's probe was prompted by complaints submitted to him by various persons who declared that a number of expense accounts, seemingly, bore the earmarks of law violation.

Among other things, it was expected that Turner's investigation would seek to ascertain whether certain contributors donated sums of money in excess of the maximum amount fixed by law fictitiously crediting other persons with having made contributions.

For example, it was pointed out, one contributor, in reality may have given $5,000 while the expense account might show he donated only $1,000 and that four other persons gave $1,000 each.

Claim was made today that a number of expense accounts contain names of persons credited with contributing large amounts of money, when, as a matter of fact, they are unable financially to make such donations.

In the event that the investigation results in the development of information which appears to warrant prosecution of apparent violators of the corrupt practices act, the attorney-general is authorized by law, it was stated, to institute suits in the Franklin county common pleas court here regardless of where the defendant, or defendants may reside in this state.

Dozen Planes Hunting For Missing Manager Of Curtiss Air Service

Merrill, Using Lindbergh's Ship, Unheard From Since He Left Buffalo Monday, Bound For New York Flying Field

BULLETIN
Buffalo, Aug. 29.—A report was received here this afternoon that what appeared to be the wing of an airplane had been sighted in a tree near Hyde Park, N. Y. It was stated further that a plane was being rushed from Kingston to the spot, to investigate whether the supposed wing belonged to the machine of the missing aviator, M. M. Merrill and Edwin L. Ronne.

Curtiss Field, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Ten airplanes took the air here this morning, led by C. S. (Casey) Jones president of the Curtiss flying service, to begin a search for M. M.
Merrill, manager of the Service, who was last heard from when he left Buffalo at 4:10 p. m. Monday in Col.
Charles A. Lindbergh's Curtiss-Falcon bi-plane, bound for Curtiss field.

Jones took off in a Fairchild cabin monoplane and was immediately followed by three more Fairchilds, two Curtiss Falcons, a Stearman, two army planes and a Junkers.
As the last plane gained altitude and the ships swung into formation they were joined by an army falcon from Mitchell field and as they swung westward several other planes, apparently private machines were seen to join them.

Before departing Jones announced that he would fly in a wide fan formation over the course usually taken by planes flying from Buffalo to New York. This course will take them through Northern New Jersey, Northern Pennsylvania and Southwestern New York.

Carry Two Observers
Each plane is carrying two observers who will watch the ground through powerful glasses as the planes move along. Each plane is equipped to drop a note to any town or farmer in the event the Merrill plane is located in a spot where it is not possible to land.

R. L. Kitchingman, chief instructor for the Curtiss flying service said much of the country over which the flight will travel is wooded and mountainous. He said he had received word from other fields that planes would be sent out to join in the search.

Saw Plane Crash
Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 29.—Two army planes from the Middletown air depot today continued to make observations over the mountains in the vicinity of Clark's ferry and Duncannon near here in an effort to locate an airplane that was believed to have crashed last night.

Although Middletown aviators, augmented by state police and volunteers, carried on a futile search until after midnight. No trace of a wreck plane was found. The search was spurred on by reports from numerous residents of Duncannon and vicinity that a plane had been seen falling.

2,000 Less Students In Belmont County

St. Clairsville, Aug. 29.—The coal strike is responsible for a 2,000 decrease in school enrollment for the fall term in Belmont county it was declared here today by George Pogue, superintendent of schools.
"Scores of families have left the county," Pogue said.

HORSES CRASH INTO MACHINE

Levinson Escapes Injury In Accident Today On Roosevelt Ave.

S. R. Levinson, manager of the Reichert Furniture company store, narrowly escaped injury today when a team of runaway horses hitched on a large wagon crashed into his automobile at the Howard st.- Roosevelt ave. intersection.

The horses were being driven by the 10-year-old son of Steve Sobot, Goshen rd. north of Howard when the horses became frightened and dashed down the street.

Levinson, driving west on Roosevelt, was directly in the path of the oncoming horses and wagon, but swerved his car to the right, the wagon striking the rear of the machine. The tongue of the wagon swung through the windshield, narrowly missing Levinson.

The horses became disoriented from the wreckage and escaped.

SLATER CALLED INTO PROBE OF VICE AT AKRON

Third Attempt Made Last Night On Life of Kyle Ross, Investigator

Akron, Aug. 29.—Ora Slater of Cincinnati, Ohio's most famous detective, is to be brought here to assist in running down the desperadoes who are attempting to murder Councilman Kyle Ross, special investigator of vice and crime conditions in Akron, it became known today.

What is regarded as the third plot to assassinate Ross came to light last night after a stormy meeting of the council. Slater, who also served as a deputy sheriff of the city, was not taken seriously among Hoover's advisers today. Although Treasurer Nutt declared that "things are coming along fine" there have been persistent reports that collections are slow in coming in.

Others Called Today
Canvassing the financial situation
comprised only part of the activities of the committee today. He also summoned James W. Good, western manager; Rep. Walter H. Newton, western speakers' head and Rep.
John Q. Tilson, head of the eastern speakers' bureau.

With this trio and National Chairman Hubert Work, Hoover tackled
the problem of when and where he shall speak, and also how often.
That he will do considerably more campaigning than was expected at the opening of the campaign is now apparent, but he will not resort to the stumping methods of a decade or so ago.

Despite efforts to press him into immediate action, Hoover has declared a short personal campaign.
His own speaking tours, it is now pretty definitely determined, will be crowded into a period of seven weeks, and he will spend much of this time in Washington.

The fact that Hoover will be required to go back to California to cast his ballot will result in an extension of his stumping tours which was not counted on originally.

Council also voted an appropriation of $1,000 to employ Slater, the detective who is chiefly credited with solving the Don Mellett murder. In addition, $200 was voted to employ a stenographer to assist Ross in his work of questioning witnesses.

Three men, two from Cleveland and one from Akron arrested as suspected bootleggers last night, may be linked with the recent attempts on Ross's life, Detective Chief McDonnell said today.

Jane Howell of Florence, Wis., arrived five minutes late at the starting point but dived into the water in spite of her handicap.

Sixty-thousand persons lined the shore and cheered the swimmers.
The race is being held in connection with the Canadian national exhibition. Sixty-six women had signed their intention of starting but 14 failed to appear for physical examinations and were barred.

HOOVER MOVES TO PREVENT ANY FUND SCANDALS

Nominee Summons Party Treasurers Today To Capital Session

MUST BUDGET ALL
NEEDS HE ORDERS

Small Donations Sought
At Request of G. O. P.
Standard Bearer

Washington, Aug. 29.—Herbert Hoover today shouldered responsibility, in part at least, for the prevention of scandals in the raising and spending of $4,000,000 in his campaign for the presidency by summoning J. E. Nutt of Cleveland, national party treasurer, and Jeremiah Milbank, eastern treasurer, before him for a report on their activities.

Republican nominee is declared by many of his aides to be extremely anxious to avoid anything that might bring about a repetition of the charges made against the Republican national committee following the Harding campaign, which resulted in a congressional investigation.

Seeks Small Donations Hoover is understood to have insisted upon a complete budgeting of all expenditures and has urged Treasurer Nutt to raise his fund among as many people as possible.
The institution of the small donation division is credited to Hoover personally.

At one time it was reported that Hoover would insist upon the campaign budget being limited to $3-000,000, the approximate amount spent in the Coolidge campaign.
National committee heads, however, after completing a tentative budget declared that it would be necessary to set the goal a million dollars higher.

The charges of John J. Raskob, Democratic national chairman that the Republicans were seeking a "slush fund" were not taken seriously among Hoover's advisers to-
day. Although Treasurer Nutt declared that "things are coming along
fine" there have been persistent reports that collections are slow in coming in.

Canvassing the financial situation
comprised only part of the activities
of the committee today. He also summoned James W. Good, western
manager; Rep. Walter H. Newton,
western speakers' head and Rep.
John Q. Tilson, head of the eastern
speakers' bureau.

man Hubert Work, Hoover tackled
the problem of when and where he

campaigning than was expected at
the opening of the campaign is now
apparent, but he will not resort to
the stumping methods of a decade

women plunged into Lake Ontario today as entrants in the 10,000 Wrigley marathon swim over a ten mile course.

arrived five minutes late at the
starting point but dived into the
water in spite of her handicap.

BUILDING CRASH TOLL SET AT 6; PROBE STARTED

Clear Away Debris Today From Collapsed Bank
In North Carolina

Shelby, N. C., Aug. 29.—With the first streaks of dawn, rescue crews cleared away today the last bit of debris on the site of the collapsed First National bank building and the death toll in the catastrophe remained at six.

Under the glare of automobile searchlights, a crew of 200 men, some of them relatives of the victims, toiled throughout the night to ascertain whether any additional persons were caught under the deluge of stone and timber.

The death toll, at one time thought to have been eight, was reduced when two men who were seen buried under the fallen structure were reached and found to be unconscious but still alive. A crew of negroes working in the basement at the time of the collapse, thought to have been killed, were rescued during the night.

Mayor Orders Probe
As this little town prepared to bury its dead, Mayor Dorsey ordered an investigation of the cause of the crash. The probe, which probably will be headed by the police chief in the absence of the town building inspector, was set to start today.

The list of seriously injured stood at 15. Among these was George Blanton, acting vice president of the bank and several bank employees. None of the injured was expected to die.

The building, which housed the First National bank temporarily, a grocery store and tailor shop, was owned by O. Max Gardner, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, who happened to be standing in front of his office nearby when the crash

George Emeny, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Emeny, who recently returned from a trip with his brother through Norway, told in an interesting fashion about that country at a meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday noon.

Emeny's description of the rugged country, the places of interest, climate, etc., was greatly appreciated by the Rotarians.

President R. S. McCulloch announced that District Governor Joseph Markley of Canton, is planning to pay the Salem club an official visit on Sept. 14. The club meeting will be changed from Tuesday to Friday for that occasion.

FIREMAN DIES IN TRAIN WRECK

Canton, O., Aug. 29.—R. D.
Shreeve, 35, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania fireman, was killed, and gineer, was seriously injured when a westbound Pennsylvania passenger train struck an iron casting projecting from the side of a flat car on a freight train here today.

The passenger train was arriving from Pittsburgh, enroute to Chicago, while the freight was pulling slowly out of Canton. A third man, whose identity could not be learned, was burned when he attempted to rescue Shreeve and Creese from the cab, which was overturned. The train was held up for an hour.

Tuesday Night

HAMMOND PLEADS
FOR UNITED PARTY

McCarthy, Galbreath and Vodrey Also Speakers

County Auditor Elmer E. Walker, of Damascus, chairman of the Republican County Central committee since the death of Charles E. Hamilton, was re-elected for another term at a meeting of central committeemen held in common pleas court No. 1 at Lisbon Tuesday night.

Out of a total of 88 votes cast, Walker received 59 and Willis Davidson of East Liverpool, received 29. There are 105 central committeemen in the county, but there were 15 absentees and two vacancies reported.

Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley of East Liverpool offered a motion to this ballot was cast by Secretary L.

A BILLION FOR RECLAMATION

Addressing a vast gathering in Los Angeles, Friday, Herbert Hoover, the Republican presidential nominee, appealed for congressional action looking to the early construction of Boulder dam, the flood control, power development, water supply and reclamation project which has received the approval of President Coolidge, Dr. Hubert Work, at the time he was secretary of the interior, and many other men prominent in public and private life who have investigated the proposal.

In acting on the Boulder dam project congress should not permit itself to be influenced by any other measure or measures along a similar line, nor should it permit whatever action it may take on the proposal to be used to influence it in acting on any other proposal for the use of public funds.

A few days ago announcement was made in Washington that congress, the coming winter, will be asked to authorize no less than five big reclamation projects in addition to the combination project proposed on the Colorado river, and it was estimated that the total cost of the six projects, added to the $230,000,000 expended on such enterprises during the last 25 years, will closely approximate $1,000,000,000.

The five projects are the Columbia river basin in Washington, the cost of which is estimated at $300,000,000; the Umatilla rapids and Deschutes river project, in Oregon, and the Casped-Alcove and Saratoga projects in Wyoming. The cost of the Umatilla project is placed at $60,000,000 and the other Oregon and the two Wyoming at lesser amounts.

While it is not expected that action will be taken by congress, this winter, on any but the Boulder dam enterprise, there is always the possibility that the other five may be brought up and pushed through, as the house committee on irrigation has taken favorable action on all the five measures and the senate irrigation committee on the majority of the projects.

Without taking into consideration the log-rolling which goes on in all our legislative bodies, the strength of the lobbies behind these reclamation projects, the politics which figures in them, it is hard to understand how the committees take the action they did in the face of the fact that the agricultural acreage already have is far in excess of the demand therefor, and the further fact that we have already expended many millions on which we have had no return and that there is no demand for much of the land which has been thus reclaimed.

A few days ago a statement was sent out from Washington that the government already has been compelled to write off losses on nineteen reclamation projects, on which there have been definite losses amounting to over $14,000,000 and probable losses amounting to over $12,700,000 more, a total of over $27,000,000. If this is the loss on the reclamation projects we already have, which, all told, cost $70,000,000 less than the estimated cost of the Columbia basin project alone, what will be the loss sustained should the entire reclamation program go through and over $200,000,000 be added to the expenditure wholly for reclamation?

Development of the country is one thing, but development of the country at the expense of the many for the benefit of the few is quite another, and the majority of these reclamation projects may be listed as proposed developments at public cost for the benefit of the comparatively few.

Thus classifying the Columbia basin project to one of its ardent champions recently brought the response: "Well, all parts of the country are getting theirs, California is going to get hers, and we people of the northwest want our share, and we're going to do our best to get it!"

And in this response we have the last word in explanation of many attempted raids on the public treasury, and we have also illustration of the danger which lies in permitting them to be accomplished.

What Others Say

LOUIS TRACY

Lovers of "mystery" fiction and tales of adventure will deeply regret the passing of Louis Tracy, author of a long list of titles, who died Monday in England at the age of 65. For many years he has delighted innumerable readers, both in his own country and America, with his stories of romance, his intricate narrations of plots, his recitals of the experience of altogether human characters in strange and bewildering situations. He was a journalist at the age of 21, but was in his thirties when he, like many of his colleagues of the British press, turned his hand to fiction. Then he struck a note that resounded widely in "The Final War." But it was his "Wings of the Morning" that gave him his first wide fame. It was not a momentous story, nor an especially new one, being the narrative of the adventures of a man and a woman marooned upon a southern sea by shipwreck. But many a reader of that story will remember now the thrill of romance that pervaded it, its truly literary quality, its lively action with the element of suspense. Later, when the fashion in fiction somewhat changed, Tracy turned to the so-called "detective novel" and produced a number of works of this character that won their proportionate share of attention. These were not enduring works, but they contributed to the pleasure and entertainment of a host of readers. There was a time when the authenticity of the author's name was questioned, when it was wondered whether he was not another person using a pen name. All doubts on this score were resolved when in 1916 Louis Tracy came to America and lectured, revealing himself as a real personage and a man of culture with a wide range of information and a capacity for expression. He did not contribute greatly to the lasting works of British authorship, but his "titles" embrace a long range that in the aggregate of circulation have made for the array of a host of readers. His work was always conscientious and thoroughly done, as in almost all cases of the British writers who have turned to literature of the imaginative kind.—Washington Star.

THE GROWTH OF TOLERANCE

Aaron Naumberg of New York, son of a Jewish rabbi, had amassed relatively great wealth before his recent death. Mr. Naumberg's will has now been filed. It names a host of charitable, educational and welfare organizations among the beneficiaries. And it leaves bequests alike to Jewish, Catholic and Protestant organizations and institutions. Harvard university and Tuskegee institute are both remembered.

The late Mr. Naumberg's disposal of his estate strikingly illustrates the present wholly admirable tendency to erase racial and religious lines altogether in matters concerning charity, education and general welfare work.

But if in these things, why not also in other things, including politics?—Minneapolis Journal.

DO EYES AND TEETH FUNCTION PROPERLY

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

A few days ago I saw cardinal flowers growing down by the brook. This is a sure sign that school days will begin almost immediately.

The day after Labor day is the beginning of school for most of our children. Before school is well begun is the time when every parent should give thought to the health of the young folks.

What about the eyes? Are they in good condition?

Do not reach the comfortable conclusion that eyes are normal just because there is no consciousness that the vision is bad. As a matter of fact, some of the most pronounced cases of eyestrain are associated with eyes which seem to have exceptional seeing power.

PRICES POWER OF PRODUCTS

stem for Measur-
due In Force In Department

on Aug. 29.—The Agricultural Department has adopted a new system for measuring the purchasing power of farm products.
The new system is based on the retail prices for what they are worth. The wholesale prices of farm products for commercial purposes are more officially believed to be more correct because "farmers are not their own suppliers, at retail, but at wholesale and a measure of the excess of farm commodities."
The new system is illustrated in the index number, just developed. It shows the purchasing power of farm products was 93 in the period prevailing in the year 1914. The general index is to show a higher purchasing power.

Purchasing Power
could be noted, however, new index numbers do not the purchasing power of ers, but merely that of a quantity of farm products," argument warned.
the new system the department takes the prices since commodities purchased by for the family living and raising the farm. Indexes e prices are constructed with ally the same base period, 1914, and as nearly as possible in the same manner, as the index prices received by farmers e commodities they sell.

e prices paid are weighted by ates of quantities purchased the average farm in the period, 1914. In other words, an attempt is made to measure the purchasing power of farm commodities in terms of the usual things that farmers actually buy. But the list of things does not include all the things for which farm income is used. It does not include, for example, such items as interest on mortgages and loans, rent and road taxes.
A natural measurement of farm income purchasing power on a basis of retail instead of wholesale prices, comparisons tells a slightly different story from that told by index numbers previously in use. Retail prices commonly lag behind wholesale prices in readjustment. When prices are adjusting it is usual for wholesale prices to advance more quickly and retail than retail prices.

When Prices Drop
opposite happens in periods of falling prices. In consequence the index number system shows, in the early years of the post-war period, a smaller discrease in the prices of farm products and the prices of other goods than was shown by the old system. On the other hand, when prices are advancing the tendency is for the retail comparison to show less advance than would be shown by the wholesale comparison.

In June of this year the purchasing power attained by farm products was the highest since 1920.
The index number was 93, with the base 100 representing 1910-1914.
Corresponding figures, based on the new system, are: 96 for 1920; 75 for 1921; 1 for 1922; 88 for 1923; 87 for 1924; 92 for 1925; 87 for 1926; and 85 for 1927.
In June the prices received for farm products were 145 per cent of the pre-war level, compared with 130 per cent a year ago.
Among the contributing factors to the high cost of living on the farms in June were: Furniture and furnishings at 208 per cent of the pre-war; clothing, 179 per cent; home building materials, 171 per cent.

THREE TRUNK

"they are not supported by the evidence," that they "are against the weight of the evidence," and that they are "unreasonable."

It is argued in the brief of exceptions that "it would not be in the public interest to permit the Pittsburgh Coal company to enjoy a monopoly in the marketing of coal in the Youngstown district." Also, it is contended that "it is not in the public interest to authorize the construction of the proposed lines for the purpose of enabling the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western Railroad company to publish the rates contemplated by it in these proceedings."

Transportation Adequate Now? The brief sets forth too, that, "it is not in the public interest to authorize the construction and operation of new lines of railroad when adequate transportation facilities are now in existence." Further, "if, in the public interest, a water and rail method of transportation is desirable, the service should be by common carriers, and the existing rail lines should be utilized."

In concluding the brief urges that authority for granting the extension be denied by the commission and that the application of the Montour road be denied also to purchase the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western "inasmuch as the purpose of such control is to facilitate the financing of railroad construction which, as we have pointed out, would not be in the public interest."

ARKANSAS

operate organizations in all of them. In addition we plan to operate organizations in these states about mid-September.

"Our reports here indicate that a majority of the newspapers throughout the agricultural section are normally Republican in policy. We shall therefore take other means to reach the voters with Governor Smith's vigorous advocacy of equality for agriculture."

Thoroughly Organized

Seldom if ever has a Democratic campaign been so thoroughly organized in the middle west, according to Raskob. As evidence of the intensity of the farm drive he cited telegraphic reports from district leaders in 34 of the 40 congressional districts in the territory in this conference. The budget approved for an average outlay of a little less than $1,000 for each county in the region.

Although Raskob and his advisers concluded their meetings here in high enthusiasm over the Democratic outlook, there were four dissenting notes in the reports presented by the state managers. Oklahoma, Tennessee, Nebraska and Illinois present problems which are expected to require the help of the national committee, according to these reports.

Persons who want any news of this campaign should read The News in this vicinity. So read it.

SUBURB ROCKED BY LARGE BOMB

Berwyn, Ill., Aug. 29.—A terrific bomb explosion here today injured a woman and shattered windows for a radius of several blocks. The entire suburb of Chicago was aroused by the blast.

A delicatessen store, men's furnishing store, jewelry store and moving picture theater bore the chief brunt of the explosion. It was not apparent at which building the blast was aimed.

A woman in the delicatessen store was knocked down by the force of the detonation and sustained minor injuries. The reason for the blast, which was believed to have been a gigantic bomb, is unknown.

Suffragets to Try Again to Get What They Seek in France

Paris, Aug. 29.—The little group of militant international suffragets gathered in Paris declared today they are not through. Despite the rebuff they received at Rambouillet yesterday when they tried to present a letter to President Doumergue, of France, asking a 10-minute conference.

In the group of militants gathered here are Americans, British, French, Germans and Italians. The acknowledged leaders, however, were Miss Doris Stevens, divorced wife of Dudley Field Malone, and Lady Rhonda, of England.

For the time being the suffragets are centering their activities against the French government and will continue their efforts to get interviews and eventually pledges of aid from President Doumergue and Foreign Minister Briand.

It is not generally clear what the feminists want. They claim they want an "equal rights treaty for women," but have failed to explain how a treaty could overcome the laws of the various nations throughout the world.

Commission Places Value On Postal Co.

ELECT WALKER

Mason-Dixon line goes to Hoover. It's our duty to see that Al Smith does not carry a single state north of that line."

Former State Senator Asher A. Galbreath of Rogers referred briefly, but with feeling, to the passing of former county Republican leaders, mentioning the name of Charles E. Hamilton, John J. Grafton and Dan Smith. "The large gathering here tonight and the harmony displayed leads me to believe that the Republican party is more strongly united right now than at any time in the last 30 years," Mr. Galbreath declared.

"I like those words of my good friend Homer Hammond," declared Attorney W. H. Vordrey of East Liverpool. "He said that although he lost he is for the winner." Mr. Vordrey urged that all Republicans "stick and cling to your officials, and of necessity the central committee must be the leader."

S. S. Weaver of Columbiana, declared that all who have the good of the party at heart should work at the proper time to get out the vote, suggesting that if this be done, that the party will achieve the success it deserves.

Chairman Walker, after commending the group upon its united front, asked Mayor Wallace L. Fogo of Wellsville to act as temporary chairman. Fogo then took charge of the meeting as a temporary officer, and called for nominations for chairman. It was then that the names of Walker and Davidson were placed in nomination.

Will Name Committees A resolution presented by Harry V. George and which was adopted, provides that the chairman select an executive committee and other campaign committees from members of the county committee.

Albert Forney of East Palestine offered a resolution supporting the entire Republican national, state, district and county ticket. This was amended on motion of Judge Hanley to include those Republicans on the state, district and county judicial ticket. The amendment and the resolution went on the record.

BUILDING CRASH

came. Property damage was estimated at $50,000.

Blame Excavation The collapse apparently was caused by excavation work in progress under an adjoining building. J. S. McKnight, the owner, was having a basement dug in which to operate a bowling alley. An excavation approximately 50 feet long and 30 feet wide was being made under the building.

Throughout the night curiosity seekers were held back by the local unit of the national guard called to preserve order and to thwart a possible recurrence of theft which took place earlier in the day when an undisciplined man made away with a handful of bills before the shrieks of the injured had died away. It was thought that the thief obtained not more than a few hundred dollars.

RUSSIAN STRONG MAN ADMITS HE'S FATHER

New York, Aug. 29.—Capt. Marc Michailovitch Medvedeff, 26, a former officer in the Russian navy and a man of powerful physique, admitted today that he is the father of the famous "eugenic baby" born to Mrs. Grace Mailhouse Burgham in the Lying-in-hospital on Jan. 10, last.

Identity of the father of the baby, a girl, which Mrs. Burgham named Vera, meaning "Truth," had been carefully concealed ever since. The circumstances surrounding the birth of the baby evoked considerable publicity at the time.

Mrs. Burgham, a widow, never issued a statement concerning the case. The birth records bore the name of Karl Graham, lawyer, of 95 Riverside Drive. No one could be found who knew such a man as Graham.

NEED RAIN IN OHIO FOR CORN CROP, PASTURES

Columbus, Aug. 29.—Although there were showers over the state during the week ending August 28, they were too light to be beneficial generally to the crops as a whole, especially in the western part of the state where droughty conditions prevail, according to Weatherman Alexander here.

Good progress was made in field operations generally and the haying and threshing of grain are practically completed, the compiled reports show. The yield of oats is fair but the quality is rather poor in certain localities while corn is making satisfactory progress and in good condition, especially the early planted, according to the bureau.

The other crops, such as potato, tomato, fruit, garden, and tobacco, are maturing well the report indicated. A heavy general rain would be beneficial to the corn crop and to pastures, especially the latter, which is deteriorating for lack of rain.

5 PROSTRATED AT STATE FAIR

Sun Takes Heavy Toll As Mercury Mounts to 94
In Columbus

Columbus, Aug. 29.—Old Sol took a hand in Ohio's yearly classic which cut the second day attendance down more than 2,000 in comparison with last year's total for the second day. Yesterday's 46,286 was second only to last year's 48,504.

The intense rays from the sun to blame for five prostrations who were treated in the Red Cross first aid hospital.

Mrs. Coe McGee, nurse at the Columbus State hospital was removed to her quarters at the hospital, following a diagnosis of her case which revealed summer flu, induced by the intense heat.

William I. Wargo, Columbus, was temporarily blinded from after effects of sleeping sickness. He proceeded to his home after receiving first aid.

Mrs. Paul Ramsey, Cedarville, left for her home after being treated for heat prostration.

Mrs. Hazel Hohenstein, Kingston a victim of heat was removed to her home after medical attention.

Mrs. W. E. Straits, Ashland, was treated for heat prostration.

Mrs. Joseph Eagan, Greenfield, was removed to Grant hospital for observation. She was suffering from a high fever.

Thirty one persons suffering with everything from a blistered heel to a pelvic fracture have been treated since the fair opened Monday.

Although the heat indicator registered 94, a new high for this week, the program moved on, undaunted by Sol's efforts to make the fair a "hot one." Vendors of cooling drinks were doing a gulping business.

Stock judging in the coliseum offered both seats and refuge from the sun.

TEN MILLIONS MADE IN YEAR BY RUM RING

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Operations of Philadelphia's liquor racketeers netted them $10,000,000 during the last year.

This became known as the special grand jury resumed its probe today into underworld conditions here. Detectives working under District Atty. John Monaghan uncovered evidence that 15 bootleggers had deposited this vast sum in 20 banks and trust companies here under fictitious names. The addresses given by the depositors were vacant lots, stables and warehouses.

The possibility that prominent Philadelphians may be involved in the huge deposits representing profits from the beer and booze industry here, was rumored in city hall today. District Atty. Monaghan declared he was not prepared to comment on this new development of the gang war investigation. One member of the bootlegging syndicate made lump deposits of thousands of dollars and his address was a vacant lot, Monaghan said.

Miss Conrad Among Graduates At State

Columbus, Aug. 29.—The largest summer class in its history will be graduated here Aug. 31, at the summer convocation at Ohio State university. The class will number 400 an increase of 30 per cent over that of last summer.

Seven of the 10 colleges and the graduate school will present candidates for degrees. The convocation address will be given by Miss Helen Parkhurst, New York educator. In the absence of President Rightmire, who is in Europe, Acting Dean Wilbur E. Siebert of the college of liberal arts, will preside.

Subject to last-minute correction, the list of prospective candidates for degrees includes Mary Elizabeth Conrad, of Salem, a candidate for a degree of doctor of philosophy.

"FORBIDDEN HOURS"

Ramon Novarro, who played the melancholy prince in "The Student Prince," approaches the portrayal of royalty from another angle in "Forbidden Hours," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer success, which is at the State tonight.

He appears as a modern king in a modern European kingdom in the new story, a vivid romance of court intrigue and love, with Renee and a notable cast.

It is a simple love story, set in the pomp and circumstance of a European court of today. Novarro plays the young king, surrounded by statesmen, traditions and the inflexible rules to which a king must ever bow; Renee Adoree is his sweetheart, a commoner, whom he is asked to forsake to wed a princess of another land in a loveless marriage arranged by diplomacy and confirmed by treaties.

Miss Adoree as Marie is exotic and charming, and Dorothy Cummings scores a brilliant triumph as the Queen-Mother. Edward Connelly as the prime minister gives a splendidly balanced performance and the piquant Alberta Vaughn as the lady in waiting is irresistible. Jacquelin Gadsdon, Marcelle Corday, Sven-Hugo Borg and Shirley O'Hara, who plays the princess, are adequately cast and Maurice Cannon, a clever French actor, as the king's valet, contributes a cameo-like bit of comedy relief.

IN BAD HEALTH FOR SIX YEARS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Gave Her Strength

Arapahoe, Okla.—"I want to tell you just what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in bad health for about six years. My nerves were all to pieces. I could not sleep and wasn't able to do my housework. Now I feel so much better! I sleep like a baby. I can do all my housework, washing and ironing and feel fine all the time. I help my husband some in the field, too, so you see we have something to praise the Vegetable Compound for. I will gladly answer all letters asking about the Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."—Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, Box 565, Westwood, California.

en hotel, just outside Monte Carlo, to which place the little Toni Lebrun, an unspoiled girl with an ambition for grand opera and only a sordid cabaret experience to recommend her, is taken by the costume mistress of the Palais de Paris, who is momentarily in funds and who has the right to call herself a Baroness. She meets Richard Spanyi, scion of a long line of wealthy and snobbish society folk; as bashful and repressed when he comes to propose as any Freudian subject could be, but naturally a sprightly young man.

And through various vicissitudes Toni welcomes one might almost say "pursues"—the man of her heart, only to turn him down when he finally proposes, because she is not what he thinks her. But that is fixed up and a wedding date is set. "The Garden of Eden" is at the Grand tonight for the last time.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Aug. 29.—The fine spun line is one of the newest ones being launched by the French dress-makers for winter wear and is promising success.

It's so thin and slender, used in so many ways and in so many variations that it is almost a new theme instead of a simple line. In general, it consists of elongations and points. In the most striking models it is expressed in skirts falling with a pointed line and to the heels, split tunic skirts that follow a diagonal line as they droop and long pointed sleeves on the evening coat.

Of daytime dresses, the elongation motif is brought in with belts that take a sloping line and point downward, with split tunics short enough to be worn under day coats and by skirts cut in a scallop front and back and consequently "pointed up" at the sides. It offers a splendid solution for the uneven hemline day clothes.

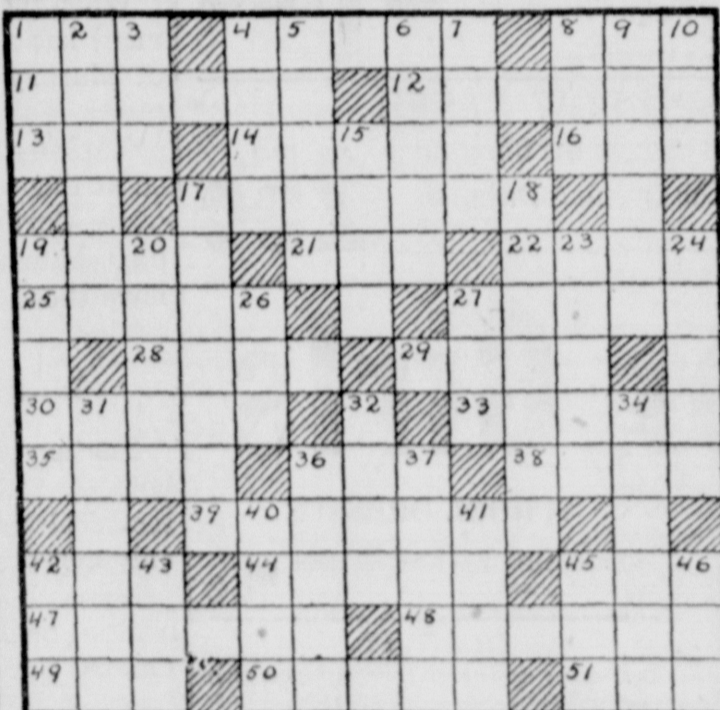

Frocks of velvet, taffeta or lace have a long pointed bodice or group of pleats placed in the center of the front instead of at the side or back.

Lelong is using a very slender line which avoids all eccentricity and yet is very novel. Slender bodices are bloused or have a slight belero effect at the back and closely-fitted hips show the waistline two or three inches below the hips and usually loping down at the back. Skirts have the fulness directed toward the knees before it flows out freely. This brings forth many new handlings of material, pleated and stitched down, inserted in diagonal lines and with very interesting circular effects.

Evening gowns with elongated hemlines droop symmetrically at the two sides and flutter draperies toward the back.

In Madras and other parts of India many flowers are cultivated for food.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Special Dishes of Creole Cooks

Creole cookery, at its best in old New Orleans, is world famous. Most of the expert cooks have been negroes, trained by French housewives. They seemed to understand instinctively the herb flavorings that figure in the many dishes. How to make meats tender, the intricate science of hot bread making, all grew under their expert hands. A few of the old recipes may interest modern cooks.

Corn Soup

Put three pounds of bottom round of beef into a soup-pot with three quarts of cold water and as soon as it boils skim carefully. Cut enough fresh green corn from the cobs to make one pint, throw the cobs into the soup, and add a pint of sliced tomatoes. Cook three hours, then remove the cobs, add the corn, the seasoning of cayenne pepper, salt, a little sugar, a tablespoonful of butter and the same of flour mixed, and stirred into a little of the soup until blended. Cook another hour and it is ready to serve. A slice of meat is cut up in dice for each serving.

Purée of Green Peas

Cook one quart of fresh green peas with a minced onion and a tablespoonful of minced parsley until the peas are soft, drain, put through a puree sieve, then into two quarts of hot milk add pepper, salt, a little sugar, a tablespoonful of butter and serve with toasted croutons.

Fried Frogs' Legs

Scald six pairs of frogs' legs, already skinned and prepared by the fish man, in scalding water. Add a half cupful of lemon juice and a teaspoonful of salt. Take out of the water and dry with a towel. Season with pepper and salt, then roll in a batter made of two beaten eggs, and a cupful of fine bread crumbs, pat firmly, then drop into hot fat, heated to boiling point, and fry a delicate brown. Drain when done on warm brown paper, serve in a folded napkin on a hot plate and garnish with parsley, lemon quarters and olives.

Rice Waffles

Scald a pint of milk and add to it two tablespoonfuls of butter, then let it cool. When cool, add to one and a half cupfuls of freshly boiled, but cold rice. Beat in yolks of three eggs, then a tablespoonful of flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder, and a half teaspoonful of salt. Whip the whites of the eggs stiffly then fold them in mixing well. Have the waffle iron hot and well greased and cook the waffles in the usual way. Butter and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Archangel Cake

Beat a cupful of unsalted butter and a cupful of powdered sugar to a cream. Sift together two cupfuls of flour a level teaspoonful of baking powder and a saltspoonful of salt. Add the well beaten yolks of eight eggs to the butter mixture and add the flour gradually, add a teaspoonful of vanilla, then the whites of the eggs beaten very stiff. Use a round chimney pan well buttered and bake in a medium oven. Try with a straw. Frost.

RELIABLE USED CARS

It pays to go to the Buick Dealer

Two used cars may look much the same from the outside. Mileage, model, tires and general appearance may be all about alike.

Yet there may be a great deal of difference nevertheless—a difference in mechanical condition which will soon show up in actual driving.

You have only the word of the dealer to go by.

That's why it pays to go to the Buick dealer. You can rely on what he says. And you may be sure his price is fair.

Five acres, located on Salem-Damascus brick road, just 1/4 mile out of city limits. It is improved with a good two-story, six room house, which has gas, electricity, complete bath, furnace heat and pressure water system. Good little barn, 30x30, stanchions for two cows. Six poultry houses, one 20x60 ft., one 16x60 ft., two 10x15 ft., two 10x12 ft. and two brooder houses. In fact, there is room for 800 chickens. Owner at the present time has 700 head. There is also a young orchard of over 100 trees which are of all varieties. Owner has a steady trade for all the eggs he can produce at even higher than retail prices and he will turn this trade over to the man who buys the place. This is a wonderful opportunity for someone as it is priced at only the price of a city home. We can offer you this at $6,250, and turn over all equipment and growing crops and give you IMMEDIATE POSSESSION. Owner will sell chickens at agreed price.
Now if you look after this little chicken farm, it will make you more money than a big dairy farm at about half the overhead. Why not move to the country, when you can have city convenience and forget the shop work, as it is unsteady and this is a wonderful proposition. ## CALL CARNEGIE SQUAD SEPT. 4

Coach Steffen Has 40 Who Seek Places On Eleven Of Tech College

Pittsburgh, Aug. 29.—A squad of between 35 and 40 candidates it is expected will report to Head Coach Wally Steffen next Tuesday when a month's training opens at the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Although the first week will be devoted chiefly to limbering up exercises and the drudgery of working off the superfluous poundage accumulated since last season, Head Coach Steffen, who occupies the bench as a superior court judge in Chicago 11 months in the year, will be on hand the opening day to direct the preliminary work. Steffen plans to give over his entire month's vacation to the Carnegie varsity preparatory work.

With nine lettermen available from last year's squad and with some exceptionally promising material coming up from last year's undefeated yearling team, prospects for the development of a strong Plaid eleven this year are good. Even Coach Steffen, and his assistants, including Bob Waddell, Dr. W. L. Marks, Al Irwin, and Paul Allison admit that, and such an admission is rare among Carnegie mentors.

Several Big Holes

The most important losses that will give the coaches fear or less worry are those of Anderson, Cowan and Cooper, in the line; English, an end; and Wertenberger and Harmin, who alternated as defensive half-back last season. Although it is not likely that the squad will uncover any pair equal to Anderson and Cowan as guards, the team will acquire strength in other positions that should more than make up for any deficiency in the line in comparison to the 1927 outfit.

High hope is being pinned upon the prospects of Capt. Howard Harpster this year to earn attention as an All-American quarterback. He was easily the outstanding quarterback in the Western Pennsylvania and Tri-State district last year, by virtue of his extraordinary ability as a passer, punter and field general. During the season he also developed a surprising ability as a ball carrier and if he shows only ordinary improvement in these capacities in the coming season, he will earn a place in the sun as one of the outstanding quarterbacks of the country.

As a nucleus for the 1928 eleven, the squad will have left over from last year's team the following lettermen: Harpster, quarterback; Letzelter, full back; Moorhead and Stauffer, halfbacks; Mielziner, center; Schmidt, tackle; Lovewell, guard; Sweet and Shaughnessy, ends. Other candidates available from the 1927 varsity are Kennedy, Kerr and Geiffuss, halfbacks; Verina, tackle; Nunnally, guard and Kousman, end.

Six Good Freshmen

From the freshmen, at least six of whom are expected to win varsity positions this year, will come: Eyth, Thayer Flanagan, Hilty, Carlson, Traa, halfbacks; Karcis, fullback; Drescher, center; Rosenzweig; Latham Flanagan, Stabnau, and Potts, ends; Highburger, Schnupp and Rousch, tackles; Netherlands, Helmbold, and H. Miller, guards. Eyth, Karcis, Drescher, Rosenzweig, Latham Flanagan, Highburger and Schnupp, will probably be found in the starting lineup.

Other candidates include Booth, a lineman who was not available last year; Herbst, a promising full back, who was unable to play last year on account of a leg injury; and Morbito, a husky halfback, who was ineligible a year ago.

The squad this year will have nearly a full month of training practice before classes begin on Sept. 26. Carnegie opens the season on Saturday, Sept. 29, against Westminster at Youngstown. Ashland college, Thiel, Washington and Jefferson, Pittsburgh, Georgetown, Notre Dame and New York university will be played in the order named.

FEDERALS BEAT CHURCH OUTFIT

The Postoffice "mush" ballers climbed to sixth place in the City League, defeating the Methodists last night at Centennial park by the score 8-4.

The Methodists, by virtue of the licking, dropped into eighth place in the league with one win in eight starts. Last night's game was the Federals' second win in eight games. The Methodists led most of the game, 4-0, but Manager Carlisle of the Federals revamped his lineup in the latter part of the game and eight Postoffice runs crossed the plate in the last three innings.

Shears and Springer formed the battery for the losers; England and Kridler working for the Federals. The Collegians will shoot for a tie for second place in the league to-night playing the Electric Furnace.

Fight Results

At Newark, N. J.—Tony Canzoneri, world featherweight champion, knocked out Bobby Carcuca of Baltimore (1).
At Boston Mass.—Dick Finnegan, Boston lightweight, took decision over Bruce Flowers of New Rochelle, N. Y. (10).
Kid Carter of Chicago knocked out Frank Garcia of Panama (7).

At New York—Pal Silvers, welterweight from Brownville, N. Y., gained the decision over Jack Britton of New York (10).

At Youngstown—George Courtney, Oklahoma cowboy, won decision over Dick Evans, Youngstown middleweight (10).

White Mountains In East Under Ice In Last Glacial Period

Concord, N. H., Aug. 29.—Mt. Washington, King of the White Mountains, was completely covered during the last glacial period, some odd thousand years ago, in the opinion of Prof. Ernest Antevs, noted Swedish glaciologist, who has completed several weeks of scientific investigation in the White Mountain region.

Prof. Antevs' associates in the investigation, Prof. James Goldthwait of Dartmouth and Frank Levett of the U. S. Geological Survey, concur with the Swedish scientist in his statement that many of the hitherto unstudied scratches found on the mountain ledges were caused by the great glacier.

Mr. Levett's activities in the geological research work were brought to an abrupt close when he fell near the Lake of the Clouds on Mt. Washington and suffered a broken arm. His companions, Prof. Antevs and Goldthwait, were unable to move him to the summit until the next morning when medical aid was first secured.

Mr. Levett's injury interrupted the program which he had planned for the coming season, which was to have been his last in the service of the Geological Survey. Having reached the age of 70, Mr. Levett had determined to resign at the close of the summer season in order to carry on private research in the Adirondack mountains.

Salem Outboard Racer To Compete Labor Day In Myers Lake Events

Labor Day and the Sunday before at Meyers lake, Canton, will be outboard championship days in all respects, for then will be decided the supremacy in many classes of competition.

The junior championship of Ohio will be awarded to the boy or girl, 14 years and under, who drive B, C or D, class outboards to lead the field.

Outboard racing appeals to the youngsters as well as the grown-ups and it is expected about 100 will contest for the first Ohio championship to go to beginners. There is no restriction placed on entrants from outside the state.

Women will have a chance to show their laurels and will also receive the much coveted championship awards in each class of competition. Genevieve Atwood of Lakeland, Fla., will be on hand to try and take the trophy to the southern city. Many women drivers will dispute Miss Atwood's claim to the Class B title.

Keen Rivals In Class C
The keenest rivalry of the two days of racing will come in the Class C and D championship for men. This honor has been hotly contested for during the season and will finally be determined Labor Day. Seven drivers have topped the list consistently, first one and then the other heading the heap. As matters stand any one of these seven can wrest the highest degree of outboard racing has to offer from the other. These seven men are Al Thomas, Elyria; W. E. Lyman, Cleveland; W. A. Blank, Canal Fulton; C. H. Maranville, Akron; A. G. Maranville, Salem; Earl Boyer, Jr., Toledo; and R. J. Blank, Canal Fulton. This is the first year the title has been established and consequently the resulting interest is keen. All races will be sanctioned by the Ohio Outboard association.

On Sunday the elimination contests will be held with minimum speed limits established for each class. These limits will be liberal so as to allow the largest number of boats to enter the finals. A study has been made of the recorded times established during three previous meets held at Meyers lake during the season, and from this, limits taken, Meyers lake is one of the few courses in Ohio that is an absolute mile. Speed records, therefore will be official.

Consolation Series
On the morning of Labor Day the consolation series will be held for all boats failing to qualify the day before. Finals of the meet will be held on the afternoon of Labor Day and if early indications are a barometer will bring together the class of racing talent in the country.

The principal reason for attracting so many boats to Meyers is that a minimum of $1500 prize money will be offered.
This is the largest amount ever awarded in this section of the country and is certain to swell the entry list to the point where each race will have to be run in heats. Cash prizes will be given in all races including junior and women's.

HORNSBY HELPS SCALP GIANTS

Former New York Star Big Noise Against His Former Teammates

New York, Aug. 29.—Rogers Hornsbey, "sold down the river" by McGraw, worked hard and fruitfully yesterday to widen the gap between the Giants and their penant chances in aiding his fellow Braves to two-time the New Yorkers, 3 to 2 and 7 to 5, thus dropping the Giants five and a half games behind the Cards.

The Clan McGraw has now lost eight out of its last ten starts, six of them in a row. Rajah scored two runs during the opener and, when the Giants overtook him, smashed a double to the fence to score Brown with the winning tally. George Sisler, another old St. Louis idol, broke the tie in the eighth of the night-cap and Hornsbey delivered a single to bring in the Braves seventh run.

The venerable Clarence Mitchell of the Cards prevented the Cubs from advancing in standing at the expense of the hapless Giants when he shut out the third place team, 6 to 0. At Pittsburgh, Hill, Grimes and Dawson thoroughly drubbed the Phils in a bargain session, 9 to 2 and 11 to 7. The double win puts the Pirates on a par with the Reds who were idle and leaves these two teams and the Giants and Cubs bunched within the space of six percentage points, fighting for runner-up position.

Connie Mack's Athletics cut a whole game from the margin of the idle Yankees by turning in a two-ply victory over the White Sox. The successful day brought the Mack-men to within three games of the Huggins crew again. Lefty Grove chalked up another victory, his twelfth in a row and 20th of the season, when Max Mishup's homer won the first, 1 to 0, and Bing Miller's smashing single in the eleventh inning of the night-cap scored Mule Haas to win the overtime session, 4 to 3.

Using four pitchers the Browns trimmed the Red Sox, 8 to 6, but the Sox are used to taking the short end by now. The Tigers emerged on top in their brush with the Cleveland Indians—a free-hitting affair that went 8 to 4.

Many Americans In Schools of Berlin
Berlin, Aug. 29.—Americans from many sections of the union are attending the summer course for Americans at the University of Berlin. The summer course opened in the impressive new Aula of the university in the presence of representatives of the foreign office, the different ministries and other distinguished guests. The president of the university, Dr. Norden, greeted the new students, emphasizing the idea of internationalism in science.

A number of American professors have been co-operating with the Germany Institute for Foreigners at the University of Berlin among them, Professor Del Manzo of Teachers College, Columbia University, Professor Busse of Hunter College, Professor Schreiber of Yale, Professor Schuchard of New York University.

B. Ward Beam who is handling the event says he will have at least 10 speedway stars as starters and probably twelve. The outcome of the Syracuse-New York race next Saturday will determine the course of many of the drivers.

Ray Keech, world's straight-away champion has entered his speedway car, as has Babe Staap, the California pilot, Billy Arnold of Chicago and Chester Gardner of Los Angeles, all these drivers will drive straight-eight motored jobs.
